MADISON COLLEGE

Preface

Madison College, a scholastically sound institution, has for its incentive the development of the whole personality of each college student. The "Schoolma'am" displays how this task is fulfilled. With this theme in mind, The "Schoolma'am" a title aptly chosen, teaches the public and in-coming students what the college has to offer. Not only does it serve in this capacity, but it also plays the role of historian by recording those items which will become cherished memories of students and faculty.

Schoolmaam

EVERY student, in order to be in the proper frame of mind for concentrated study must also have periods of relaxation. Many are the outlets for stimulation. A student may be a member of the musical combo or may find relaxation in the enjoyment of a class night production.

HERE in the September breeze students enjoy that ten minute break between classes.

THOSE Rockingham Turkeys are the best, but can they really read?

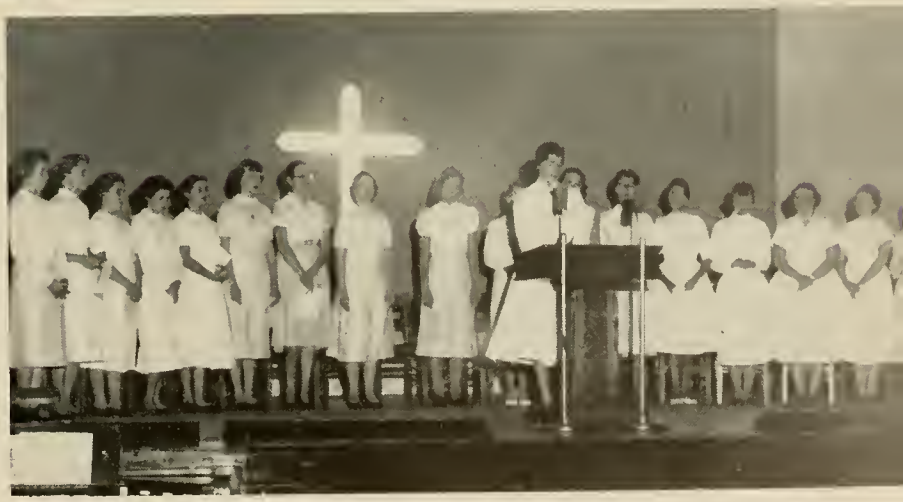
AND what could be more relaxing than a good meal? These students are awaiting the opening of the dining hall doors.

MADISON'S campus has much to offer in inspirational beauty. The tower of Wilson — a cherished tradition; Harrison Hall — the music majors claim as home; Home Management Residence — where the Home Economics Majors put into practice all they have learned; Messick House — where the Theta Sigs enjoy many good times; Construction — not a beauty spot now, but it will be when the new dorm is completed.

Any personality, to be well rounded, must have its spiritual side as a basis for other assets. Each year Religious Emphasis week is held on campus. Here the guest minister leads a bull session.

On Wednesday nights students may be found gathering for dorm devotions.

The "Y" Candlelight Service is always a high point in spiritual inspiration.



SOCIETY is but an accumulation of people who know how to be sociable. Madison's varied social functions certainly serve that purpose.

WHETHER it be an informal tea at the Home Management Residence or a formal one at Hillcrest, there are many opportunities for the Freshmen to become acquainted with upperclassmen and faculty.

ENJOYING a dance intermission, these students are attending one of the several formal dances held each year.

THE Major Organizations Tea provides another opportunity for social activity.

IN formal attire students are eager to enjoy the annual tea at the President's home.

Physical fitness, good sportsmanship, and systematic routine — Can you think of a more appropriate method of rounding out a personality?

The extramural fencing team instructs those interested in the techniques of the sport.

Caught in action are some of the members of the extramural basketball team in a game with Sweet Briar.

Dance instructors have informal sessions with groups who are anxious to improve their skills.

What a lot of fun Shuffleboard can be. This is one of the recreational sports in which many students spend spare time.

To become a Greek is the high point in many lives. The custom of gathering in the street after welcoming new pledges is traditional.

What a thrill to receive such a warm welcome to the house of your choice.

There is nothing like one of those informal good times when Greek Sisters get together.

Dormitory life is a varied existence. There are serious moments and frivolous ones. Students do their wash in the laundry room and then relax with that long awaited phone call.

New furniture adds zest to dormitory rooms and of course adds to the comfort of the students.

Study time brings out the dusty typewriter and that term paper is completed.

After studying it is a pleasure to head for the rec room and a favorite TV program.

The student body leaves Wilson Hill after an enlightening assembly program. Such speakers as the famed Gerard Priestly (extreme right) visited the campus this year.

Twice each year the faculty don their academic garb for Convocation at which time educational speakers are attended with interest.

Students have opportunity to learn the art of dramatics through class night programs, through a part in a Stratford Club production, or by observing assembly programs given by professionals.

Dedication

The dedication of this annual is honorably given to one who has pledged his time and energy to the education of his students.

With his live for Biology and his sincere kindness, he has given to many a rich awareness, not only for the field of science, but for the appreciation of mankind. His classroom has become the envy of all, for it is there that the true art of teaching is at work, giving students the desire and the love of knowledge. Unknowingly, he has become the guiding star for many of the past and future graduates of Madison College.

With admiration and affection, we proudly dedicate the 1957 Schoolma'am to Mr. Stephen C. Bocskey.

Mr. Stephen C. Bocskey

Nancy Gardner, Lynn Ramsey, Bev Belt, Joan Alls, Elinor Ritchie, and Betty Harrelson were among those selected for Who's Who in '57.

Outstanding Junior, Jane Gilbert, installs Outstanding Freshman, Lee Tomlinson, as Freshman Class President on Old Student, New Student Day.

the Academics

MAURY HALL

Home Economics Department

Jackie Poston and Phyllis Craik construct a slip-cover while Dru Turner does last minute sanding on a chair that she is refinishing. Both of these skills are taught in the Home Management Residence.

Jackie Poston has just given little Margaret Mengebier a bath. Margaret's sister, Nancy, looks on. Work of this type is included in the Child Development program of Home Economics.

Madison's tea room serves as one of the places where Dietetics students do practice in their Institution Management Course.

Margie Yargar, Susie Baldwin, and Judy Moss are busy with sewing activities while Mrs. Lockard keeps a watchful eye on what is happening. Several classes are offered in the clothing field, including tailoring and dress design.

REED HALL

Physical Education Department,
Social Science Department,
Foreign Language Department

Dr. Sinclair, Professor of Physical Education, gives instruction to one of her fencing classes. The Physical Education Department offers classes in all popular sports.

Dr. Sawhill, of the Foreign Language Department, talks with one of his students while others use the transcription machines in the laboratory. German, French, Spanish, and Latin are offered in this department.

A history class listens attentively while Dr. Frederikson, Social Science Professor, lectures. Madison has an excellent Social Science Staff which offers classes in Sociology, United States History, Current Public Affairs, Economics, and other popular courses in the field.

Jean Click and Martha Goodwin are shown with two of their pupils while doing their student teaching. This is a very important phase of the work of all Madison students who are in an Education Curriculum.

BURRUSS HALL

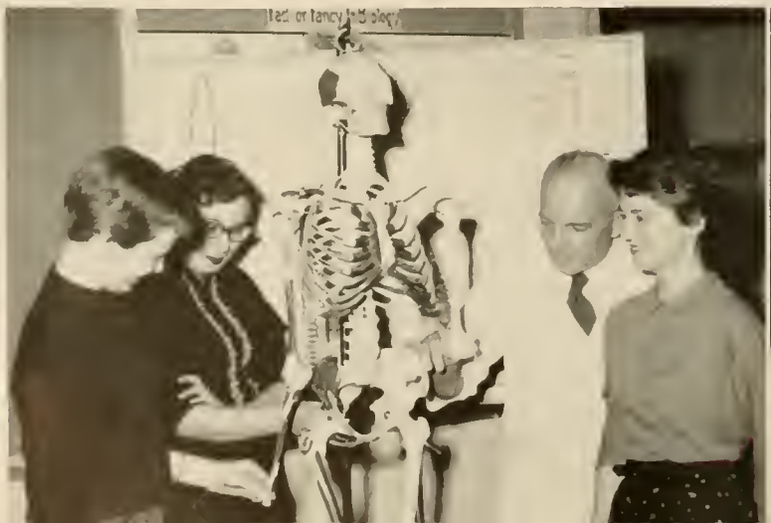
Physics Department, Biology Department, Chemistry Department, Geography and Geology Department, Mathematics Department

Karen Lantz, a physical science student, demonstrates use of planetarium equipment while in a class of Dr. Wells, Physics Department. Astronomy, photography, electronics, and nuclear physics are among the courses which may be taken in this department.

Dr. Showalter of the Biology Department proudly displays Madison's own Green House specimens to a group of students.

Students receive pointers in anatomy from Mr. Bocskey, Biology Department. The Biology courses include physiology, zoology, genetics, and embryology. Burruss Hall has the very finest equipment, not only in the Biology Department, but also in the Departments of Physics and Chemistry.

Rachael Reynolds and Audrey White make a routine check on their white rat. These rats are used in nutritional studies.



WILSON HALL

Art Department, English and Speech Department, Education, Psychology and Philosophy Department

Miss Walker examines work of her students in a Crafts Class in the Art Department. Crafts, Oil Painting, and Art in the Home are but a few of the Art courses a student may enjoy taking at Madison.

Miss Boje's English class is very interested in a lecture on the poetry of Robert Browning. The Departments of English and Speech offer courses in many areas, including English Novel, Biblical Literature and Dramatic Production.

A group of students prepare to preview a film in the projection room. Although most of the Library Science Courses are taught in the Library, this phase is held in Wilson Hall.

Mr. Raymond Hicks, teacher of organ, gives Ruby Wray, a music major, a lesson on the pipe organ in Wilson Hall. Most of the Music Department is housed in Harrison Hall, but the organ and some practice rooms are used in Wilson.

The Christmas Dance is enjoyed by the Chairman-elect and Chairman, Sara Bundy and Mary Ellen Choate, and dates. The dance was sponsored by the Panhellenic Council.

Bernice R. Varner, Advisor.

Mrs. Ober, National Panhellenic Officer, joins Mary Ellen Choate in congratulating Virginia Wilson, President of Zeta Tau Alpha, on winning the Sorority Scholarship Cup.

Panhellenic Council

"Greek World" — these terms on the Madison College campus denote a world inhabited by citizens wearing white sailor bonnets with sorority letters, and having a spirit of unity and friendship in maintaining the purpose of Panhellenic Council. That purpose is to serve as a Madison College medium through which sorority sisters may work together in promoting common interests and solving mutual problems.

MARY ELLEN CHOATE
Chairman

The council is composed of three representatives from each sorority and meets weekly to make plans and lead sorority affairs. Each sorority shares turns as hostess and, with refreshments, there's "food for thought."

Topping the list of yearly activities for the Council was fall rushing. Rushees, bids, meetings, open houses, and exciting parties — all were synonymous with the experience of fall rush. The culmination and reward of harried weeks arrived when each rushee was greeted midst laughter and tears by her chosen sisters.

"Christmas Crystals" was the theme of Panhellenic's major social function, the annual Christmas dance. Leading the council members through the reams of crepe paper and maze of greenery used for decorations was the Chairman of Panhellenic Council.

Recurring Panhellenic memories are many — including the visit of Mrs. Julia Fuqua Ober, National Panhellenic delegate. As guest speaker for the Panhellenic Sing, she inspired Greek ideals and gave new meaning to sorority life. Sorority melodies floated through Wilson Hall as each group of sisters sang their favorite songs. Climaxing the annual Sing was the awarding of the Scholarship Cup, this year presented to Zeta Tau Alpha for the highest average.

All sororities welcome visits from their National sorority officers, invite them to weekly meetings, and hold coffee hours in their honor.

A weekly service of the Council is furnishing dinner music to be played during all meals. Another service is a philanthropic project during the Christmas season. Each year the Council chooses a family with whom to share Christmas happiness, food and clothing. Friendships of former foreign students are not forgotten for the Council sends college greetings and presents to them at the holiday season.

Early May found all sorority sisters gathered back campus for the Panhellenic picnic. To add to the entertainment on this occasion, items contributed by all were auctioned off midst jokes and "pep talks" about the objects.

Another Council highlight was Spring Rush with its "traffic stopping" activities and opportunities to welcome into sorority life more college friends.

SARA BUNDY
Chairman-Elect

Marking the official end to a year of activity achieved through sorority cooperation was the spring banquet. Past officers initiated the new — leaving them responsibilities, but with accomplished patterns to follow.

Everyone enjoyed the Panhellenic Sing held Nov. 8.

It was special request time at the Christmas Dance.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA sisters returned to school in September eager to hear of the exciting experiences and varied vacations of the past summer.

With great and ambitious plans, everyone settled down to transforming Carter into "Chinatown." An exciting rush weekend climaxed the rush period. Twenty-two new sisters were welcomed, and many alumnae returned for the event.

In November came the celebration of Founders' Day, highlighted by a banquet at The Gables in Elkton.

Twenty-five CARE packages were mailed as a Thanksgiving and Christmas remembrance.

Among the many events of the Christmas season were a caroling party with the other sororities on campus, a Christmas party given by the pledges, and a party for the seniors given by Carter's housemother.

All these and many more add to the wonderful memories which will always be cherished in the heart of every ASA.

SEPTEMBER rolled around and the girls of Alpha Sigma Tau, filled with many new ideas, came back to school to begin another eventful year.

October saw animated preparations for the coming Rush Party. The "Carnival" was a big success and offered much enjoyment, after which thirteen pledges were welcomed. Another event that month was the installation of an Alumnae Chapter in Harrisonburg at which the district president officiated. Afterwards a social hour was held for the alumnae.

National Founder's Day was celebrated at The Gables by a banquet.

December was significant for the pledges became official members and received their pins. At a Christmas party, Alpha Sigs watched three underprivileged children and their grandmother gratefully open gifts given them by the sorority.

Spring Rushing became the scene of welcoming new sisters into the sorority. In May studies were laid aside for a weekend at College Camp, celebration of the local Founder's Day.

June found the Alpha Sigs extending wishes for success to the seniors at a farewell breakfast.

Alpha Sigma Tau bids "adieu" to a wonderful and memorable year.

PI KAPPA SIGMA, with its returning members, was anxiously waiting for the coming events to unfold. The first couple of weeks Shenandoah House was getting a new paint job. Shenandoah's pride and joy, the basement, was turned into an enjoyable recreation room. The ping-pong table offered many hours of recreation in the gaily decorated collegiate basement.

Model A Fords, raccoon coats, and flappers were seen in Shenandoah Apartments during our Roaring Twenties Rush Party. Rush weekend saw many of the Pi Kap alumnae back at Madison. Besides just the thrill of seeing them, Pi Kaps were tickled pink with a new electric perculator, a frying pan, and a toaster. Cooking tasted better throughout the year. All of this added to rejoicing over twenty-six new pledges.

Founder's Day on November seventeenth found the Sorority holding its annual banquet at the Belle Meade Restaurant. A short address by the vice-president and the singing of Pi Kap songs saw the members, pledges, sponsors, and alumnae examiner enjoying a hearty meal.

In December, the house was decorated for the Yuletide season by the pledges. Santa also paid a visit at the Christmas party, at which time gifts were exchanged. Caroling with the rest of the sororities added to the spirit of Christmas. A deeper meaning of Christmas was realized by the Pi Kaps as they gave help to a needy family as part of their Philanthropic Program for the year.

The opening of the second semester found all looking forward to Spring Rush. Open house during the week was climaxed by walking on Saturday.

The approaching of graduation saw the Pi Kaps transforming Shenandoah into the spirit of mythology for May Day. Later the graduating seniors were honored with gifts and a Senior Breakfast. With graduation farewells were bade. The year was eventful and colorful and those everyday occurrences added to pleasant memories.

ESTES PARK, Colorado, was the scene of the Tri Sigma Convention this summer. The president of Alpha Upsilon chapter was the official delegate. A collection of pictures, favors, notes and movies, brought back, were used to recreate the convention for Madison's Tri Sigs.

Convention thoughts turned to rushing in October and Sprinkle turned into a "Plantation" as Alpha Upsilon received fifteen new sisters. The pledges and members were greeted by an unusually large number of alumnae.

Christmas at the house was celebrated by "Special Santa Clauses" and by an exchange of gifts. The "special guests" carried out a theme of "Sigma Serves Children."

With badge pledging in January, the pledges officially became members of Alpha Upsilon Chapter.

Spring Rushing became the scene of proudly welcoming new members into the Sigma Sisterhood.

In April a Founder's Day banquet was enjoyed by all. Equally enjoyable was the founding "get-together" with the Alpha Sigma Alpha girls.

After Easter, the Tri Sigs visited Camp Strawderman for a weekend that will long be remembered.

June brought saddened spirits with the realization that many Sigma sisters would be graduating and leaving to seek their success elsewhere.

Schottroffee, I. Skapars, J. Stiegleman, F. Witsell, F. Whitt, C. Wilson, M. Wood.

EAGER to accomplish many and varied goals, the Theta Sigmas ambitiously settled down to begin the new school year.

Having the theme, "Babyland," for Fall Rushing, Messick House was completely transformed into a hospital nursery to receive the "Theta Expectancies." Climaxing the evening were refreshments served in a veritable night club style at the "Baby Stork Club." The following week all Theta Sigs proudly announced the arrival of new Theta babies into its fellowship.

Phi Chapter was proud of its high efficiency rating in the annual magazine campaign for cleft-palate children; and also for the benefits received from a March of Dimes Drive on campus, of which Theta was sponsor.

Thanksgiving was a time of great and welcomed excitement, for the living room and front hall of Messick were redecorated with new furniture, draperies, and a hall rug. Prize possessions are the two dried arrangements, given by the pledges, which are blended to carry out the new color scheme.

December brought not only the initiation of pledges, but also a new advisor. The Christmas season was a festive and joyous occasion when Theta joined with the other Greek organizations on campus for one big Panhellenic Christmas caroling fest. The mood continued at a Christmas party, when Phi sisters and sponsors jubilantly exchanged gifts and gathered around that newly-paintly green piano to sing. Highlighting the party was a television skit entitled, "This Is Your Life Santa Claus," which was presented by the new members.

Anxiously Thetas awaited the first glow of spring, for then came those relaxing picnics, visits to Raleigh Springs, and the celebration of Founder's Day with a banquet held at Shenvalee.

With the arrival of June, Theta sisters look back upon an exceedingly successful and memorable year, knowing that this was a year to be cherished by all.

Ritchie, E. Shultz, M. Southard, F. Swanner, L. Swats, P. Tucker, L. Walls, V. Wilson, H. Winkleman, C. Yost, A. Zirkle.

WHEN school opened in September the members of Zeta Tau Alpha fraternity returned to their beloved Dingledine house eager to begin another year filled with work, fun and friendship.

The year began back in the summer when Gamma Kappa Chapter won two national awards at the biennial National Convention in New Jersey. They proudly brought home from that convention the Scholarship Plaque and the National Standards award given for "high standards of character, conduct, social competence and cultural development of chapter members."

Their first big event was the celebration of Founders' Day on October fifteenth. Later that month they all spent an enjoyable weekend at College Camp.

Rush week found Dingledine House decorated as a tropical island in keeping with the theme, "South Pacific." After an exciting week of rushing, the girls who had chosen Zeta as their sorority were heartily welcomed.

Annual patroness day was held. Another exciting moment occurred when they were awarded the Scholarship Cup at the Panhellenic Sing for the second consecutive year. How happy they were to take that cup to its permanent home at Dingledine House.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas they adopted a needy family and tried to share with them some of their own Christmas spirit. Throughout the year they contributed to their National Funds and helped with the Drive for Crippled Children.

The days were busy ones and so passed quickly bringing June and graduation. It was hard to tell the seniors "goodbye" but every Zeta knew that there would always live in her heart the memory of this another wonderful Zeta year.

Sigma Delta Rho

WHETHER enjoying a bull session around the fireplace at College Camp or eating sizzling charcoal steaks by the river bank, the Delta Rhos have enjoyed a year of diverse activities and eminent brotherhood.

The year has been particularly outstanding for Sigma Delta Rho — by choice a local fraternity — as this was the first year that monogrammed mugs and membership pins have been ordered.

Christmas caroling with Madison's other Greek organizations sent the Deltas Yuletide spirits soaring. The fraternity helped diligently with decorating the gymnasium for the annual Panhellenic Christmas Dance.

Amazed and quizzical stares of many Madisonites greeted potential pledges as they conscientiously carried out Sigma Delta Rho's unique initiation requirements for membership. Mr. Bocskey's recreation room again proved to be the ideal setting for a strictly informal initiation of new members who pledged themselves as true Sigma Delta Rhos.

Eldon Padgett, Eddie Broyles, Sonny Wine, and Norman Miller enjoy putting the accounts in order.

Eldon Padgett, President of Sigma Delta Rho, smiles approval as Goats, John Earman and Ronney Ney, scrub the steps of Wilson Hall.

Representatives of the Honor Council and Athletic Association, Janet Bird and Shirley Brankley, welcome Gail Matthews, a new student, as her sister Susie, a Sophomore, looks on.

Members of El Club Espanol enjoy the informal recreation of a Spanish dance.

Student Government Secretary, Carol McCormick, reads the minutes of the last meeting as Anne Warren, President, and Council members listen attentively.

Student Government Associaton

The Student Government Association is the major student organization which provides opportunities for its members to grow in the acceptance of responsibilities, independence, character - building, and power by the principles of self-government. The members can enjoy its privileges by the acceptance and assumption of its responsibilities.

ANNE WARREN

President

The Student Council began its year of activities prior to the opening of school with the S.G.A. retreat at Riverwood, the college camp. One of the first projects of the year was organizing competition for naming the college camp. As always, the S.G.A. enjoyed helping with the registration of new students. As a part of the new students' orientation, a talent show, the coke parties for freshmen and transfers, and the Major Student Organizations Tea were sponsored.

The annual opening dance, "Masked Fantasy," was sponsored jointly by the Women's S.G.A. and the Men's Student Government Organization. Several amendments to the constitution were added in order to strengthen the relationships among students. Among the year's accomplishments was the new seating arrangement in assemblies designed to initiate a more efficient method of checking attendance. A supreme effort was made by the Assembly Committee to improve the quality of assembly programs. Simplification of the methods of signing out was another distinct improvement.

Five representatives were sent to the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Governments convention held in Athens, Georgia.

Through the cooperation of all its members, the efficient leadership of its president and the council, assisted by its advisors, the Women's S.G.A. brought a successful year to a close striving for higher goals and a stronger organization.

The Honor Council is a coveted heritage on Madison's campus. Through the years it has grown stronger in its efforts of promoting the personal integrity and straightforwardness in the speech, conduct, and thought of all students.

Elected representatives from the classes and the Men's Student Government Organization serve as an impartial court to uphold the Honor Code in all respects.

To the orientation program for new students this year was added an impressive ceremony at which all new students signed the Honor Code Pledge cards, signifying their understanding, support, and participation in the Honor System.

The year also saw a new amendment to the constitution passed, providing for a Vice-President of Honor Council to be elected with Minor Officers in the spring. Through cooperation with the Student Government Association the Council joined in preparation for the opening dance and a Christmas party.

With cooperation of advisors, Council, and student body, may the Honor System continue as a mighty and unalterable tradition in future years.

The Standards Committee has as its aim to promote high ideals of social conduct and appearance on the campus. Its members are always ready to act as advisors on such questions.

This year Standards assisted with registration, with the dance, "Masked Fantasy," and with the May Day dance.

Where may we cut campus? When may we wear bermudas? What are the dance regulations? Members of Standards studied thoroughly this year the campus regulations in order to be more efficient in answering students' questions.

The duty as well as the desire of every individual student is to contribute to the wholesome attitude and healthful spirit of living for which Madison's campus is known. Standing by as a reminder and counsellor is the Standards Committee.

Chairman

Sis Watkins has got Lynn Ramsey's number for a calldown.

The Social Committee is one of the many organizations on campus that does much of the "behind-scenes" work — arranging and serving for teas and receptions, polishing silver for all these functions, planning and decorating for dances — activities which provide invaluable social experience for the sixteen girls of the committee.

Soon after school opened the Committee began its year's work by organizing and directing the Major Student Organizations Tea, a social function to help acquaint the freshmen with the officers of the campus. The next major activity was the opening dance which was planned and given with the Student Government Association. This year the theme was "Masked Fantasy," when the gym was decorated in red and black masks with touches of white as a contrast.

During hockey and basketball seasons the Committee members served as hostesses at teas for the teams after all home games.

In the spring the girls were kept quite busy helping with three important campus activities. The May Day dance was arranged by the Committee and the dance clubs assisted in decorating. The Committee members planned and served for the Senior Dance and served for the Senior Reception at Hillcrest.

The Madison Art Club engaged in numerous activities and projects this year. Among these were decorating the dining halls for Christmas and conducting the Miss Madison contest in the spring.

The Club tried to raise the standards for lettering displayed on bulletin boards and to make the posters more attractive. Discussion meetings provided many ideas on a variety of subjects ranging from hand-decorated Christmas cards to decorating a home.

The Handbook

The HANDBOOK is one of the school publications sent during the summer to all new and old students. This booklet contains not only the rules of the Student Government Organizations but also school songs, including the Alma Mater. The extra-curricular organizations and their functions are explained as well.

The HANDBOOK staff from the time of their election and appointments were kept busy securing ads from firms located in and around Harrisonburg and patronized by the college students. The staff also compiled general information for the HANDBOOK.

Fire Safety Committee

The Fire Safety Committee of Madison College is composed of the campus fire chief and a fire chief selected from each dormitory.

The prime concern of the Committee has been to promote a consciousness of fire hazards, safety rules, and correct procedures to be followed in case of fire. As a unit the Committee has developed and organized monthly drills in which the students are trained and acquainted with proper fire rules and regulations in their various dormitories.

The Ushers

The ushers are on hand for all programs which are held in Wilson Auditorium, whether it be the community concert series, the college lyceum activities, or a Stratford production.

They take pleasure in assisting guests with questions and directions pertaining to the programs. Each year the respective classes select representatives to serve with the group.

The experience gained is truly worthwhile and beneficial, not only in the respect of serving the public, but also because of the opportunity to take advantage of the excellent and varied programs of the campus.

Men's Student

PAUL WENGER, President

The Men's Student Government Organization is the most vital men's organization on campus. The objectives of the organization are to promote better student-faculty relations, act as an intermediary between the administration and the men students, and to promote the general good will and welfare of the college and student body.

The men have a complete system of self-government administered through the student council, made up of officers and the student court, which is composed of representatives elected from each class. This organization handles any breach of college rules, traditions, and social etiquette, as well as problems or ideas which happen to arise.

A standing athletics committee has the full responsibility for all sports activities. This committee is responsible for furnishing the "Dukes," the basketball team, with equipment, and also furnishes recreational equipment for the Day Students' Room.

Government

The year began with an annual smoker in the Day Students' Room with refreshments being served. This event stimulated better new-old student relations as well as student-faculty relations.

Through the cooperation of the Women's Student Government Association and the Administration, the men students have participated in activities such as: full recognition of the S.G.O. officers and Student Court in the New Student-Old Student Day assembly program, representation in receiving lines at social functions, all officers participating in the annual Student Government Dance, active participation in the Presidential straw ballot election by furnishing a chairman and speakers for each party.

The Breeze

THE BREEZE, Madison's weekly newspaper now in its thirty-fourth year of publication, is a means of relating to the students any past, present, or future events of interest on campus.

Every Tuesday and Thursday nights found THE BREEZE room and the editorial staff members in various aspects of chaos — with news stories misplaced, red lead pencils furiously being used to revise stories that can be found, and typewriters clicking. And loud exclamations heard were due to headlines that were too long or not long enough, pictures that were too large, a scarcity of features (or just plain news stories), no subjects for editorials, or the never-ending problem of making up an "eye-catching" paper.

But despite the numerous headaches connected with each issue of THE BREEZE, there was still time for fun and coke breaks, and a chosen few could be seen around 2 a. m. (if anyone else was up that late to see them) trudging happily across campus from their second home, the BREEZE room.

Newspaper knowledge was increased by reports from BREEZE representatives attending national and state press conventions. Besides serving the students through the newspaper medium, THE BREEZE sponsored a student assembly in November. Aided by posters, banners, political speeches, and student polls, THE BREEZE presented an informative rally during the past presidential election.

Closing a hectic but enjoyable press season, the staff met socially in the spring for a party celebrating a rewarding and successful BREEZE year.

The Schoolma'am

Will this layout be the most attractive? Will enough ads be sold? Will all the pictures get taken on schedule? Will the copy get proofread before the deadline? These are only a few of the questions that trouble the minds of the SCHOOLMA'AM staff.

In order to clear up these questions tentative ideas were formulated during the summer. When the staff members returned to school in September, these ideas began to develop into more concrete ones.

SUE PETERS
Business Manager

In November the editor-in-chief, the business manager, and the staff's advisor attended the nationwide Conference for Associated Collegiate Press in Cleveland, Ohio. Many of the ideas acquired at this meeting were incorporated in this yearbook to make it one of Madison's most outstanding SCHOOLMA'AMS.

Hours and hours of hard work of which the student body is unaware were put into this publication by each member of the staff. However, there were also hours of fun and gaiety, some of the most enjoyable of which were the Christmas party given by the staff's advisor.

It is hoped that you will enjoy this SCHOOLMA'AM as much as the staff has enjoyed putting it together for you. May it help to keep your memory of this year's many friendships, activities, and accomplishments ever green.

The annual Christmas party given by the advisor was an early highlight in the Christmas season.

J. Metts, N. Cassidy, G. Robinson and A. L. Chapman give a sigh of relief as that last shipment of copy is sent off.

ELOISE LOHR
President

To instill faith, hope, and above all, a belief in the true Christian life — this is the main purpose of the Y.W.C.A. Programs such as Friday Chapel Services, Sunday Vespers, Dorm Devotions, and Religious Emphasis Week, plus special services at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter help students to realize how important it is to grow spiritually.

The Cabinet, composed of elected representatives from each class, also planned literally hundreds of social activities to bring about a closer relationship between individuals. The Big Sister-Little Sister Program, whereby an upperclassman was around at all times to help a freshman through those "trying first weeks" of college; the Halloween Party, when even the faculty joined us in our festivities; the Christmas Kid Party, to which each student brought a small package for a needy child — all these programs played a significant part in campus life.

To promote Christian fellowship and training among the freshmen, the Junior "Y" was organized. The various programs and projects were planned and directed by the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet.

Junior "Y" Officers: S. Wallace, Treasurer; N. Close, Vice-President; J. Ruffin, President; J. Thomas, Secretary.

Y.M.C.A.

The Y.M.C.A. through its meetings and discussions has strived to develop in its officers and members a spirit of Christian cooperation through worship and working together. Through its work and actions it has aimed to realize better personal living habits.

This year the "Y" established itself as a cooperative body in working with other religious organizations. The group designated a meeting room and conducted a program to give it a more religious atmosphere.

Through the Friday Chapel Programs the "Y" shared with the student body the need and inspiration of spiritual concentration. The local church visitation program this year again played a vital part in the community activities.

Baptist Student Union

During this year the Baptist Student Union has continued to provide a closer relationship between Baptist students on campus and the Harrisonburg Church. It is the Union's desire to develop wholesome spiritual lives and strong Christian friendships while at Madison.

At the pre-school retreat at Massanetta plans were made for the new year. The welcome mat was put out for all new students with the annual church party and Join-the-Church Day. During the week Pause for Power, Friday Fellowship, and B.S.U. Choir brought the organization closer in Christian fellowship. All Sunday services, Sunday School, and Training Union meant much to the members of the Union.

The state convention in Newport News provided an opportunity to get to know members of B.S.U. from many other colleges. In December good-byes were said to the Student Director who got married. Everyone pitched in to keep the Center open as before and to carry out plans and activities. These included Spiritual Emphasis Week End in February and the annual B.S.U. Banquet in March, as well as regular meetings and Fellowship Hour on Sunday nights after Evening Worship.

Canterbury Club

The Canterbury Club enriches the college life of Episcopal students. Informal Sunday supper meetings with worship, discussions on Christian topics, and warm fellowship give added meaning to the lives of Madison students.

Activities this year were highlighted by inspiring trips to the National Cathedral and St. Anne's Preventorium. Members of the Club also participated in district and regional conferences at Roslyn.

Lutheran Student Association

The purpose of the Lutheran Student Association, a national organization, is to strenghten the relationship between student and church.

Early activities of the year, centered around "art in the church," included enjoying many guest speakers who gave their views on various topics.

Several trips were taken to the University of Virginia to join with other college groups for meetings. Good times with recreation and fellowship were enjoyed at the fall and spring retreats.

The group has reaped the reward of good harvest in their many undertakings this year.

Newman Club

The Newman Club, an organization for the Catholic students on Madison's campus, is a member of the Piedmont Province of the National Newman Club Federation.

Members strive together in achieving personal and group development. Through this development the members gain a well-rounded personality spiritually, intellectually, and socially.

In February a communion breakfast was held on Cardinal Newman Day. The thoughts of a guest speaker were enjoyed on this occasion.

The practice of taking care of the children of the church while their parents attended Mass was a continued project.

Adding much to the spiritual life of those in its fellowship, the Newman Club enjoyed a memorable year.

Schwarzenau Club

The Schwarzenau Club is organized for the Church of the Brethren students. The aims are to foster a well-rounded spiritual, intellectual, and social program for all members.

At the beginning of this year the local church gave a welcoming banquet at which each member of the Club was given a church mother and father. Other activities included socials and joint meetings with the Church of the Brethren Youth Fellowship.

A choral program of special music was sponsored at the church for community benefit. The Club members profited greatly from the retreat held at Rawley Springs, which has become an annual affair.

Geographical Clubs

The Geographical Clubs were organized the early part of last year to meet the needs of students from various areas of Virginia. Their aims are to bring about a closer association among the students living in these areas, to facilitate holiday transportation arrangements, to be of assistance to prospective Madison students, and to promote social functions with other colleges having similar organizations.

The Executive Council, composed of the presidents and advisors of the individual Clubs, acts as a coordinating body. Membership is open to all students wishing to participate in these activities.

Wesley Foundation

Spiritual growth was the tread in the activities of the Wesley Foundation for the year.

The purchasing of a piano for the Wesley room was one of the year's main projects.

Deputation teams have visited several nearby colleges and small churches. Members of these teams offered their services in worship, recreation, music, and organization.

Another monumental feature was the Methodist Student Movement Conference held in January, the central theme emphasizing "Christian Witnessing." Directive thinking for the conference was led by a representative from North Carolina.

Social activities consisting of hikes, game nights, and similar activities were held monthly. Frequently nearby colleges were invited to these functions.

Westminster Fellowship

Westminster Fellowship is made up of Presbyterian students and other students who wish to make the local church their home. W. F. seeks to bring these students to a fuller knowledge of the Gospel and an allegiance to Christ through Bible Study, inspirational programs, and Christian fellowship together.

Most of the year's activities were planned by the Council during the spring and fall retreats at Massanetta. Freshmen were welcomed in the fall by letters and visits from Prebsy Pals and through dessert parties. There was a picnic on the Skyline Drive and an apple picking day for Sunnyside Presbyterian Home. The main project for the group throughout the year was caring for three needy young boys by buying milk, sponsoring a scavenger hunt for food, and giving them gifts at Christmas. There was fellowship with other college W. F. groups at Synod conferences and through exchange programs.

Kappa Delta Pi, a national honor society in education, formally recognizes with membership those juniors and seniors who have met the national membership requirement of a scholarship grade above the upper quintile point of the college and a certain number of completed semester hours in education. The members must indicate a continued interest in the field of education and manifest desirable personal habits and leadership attributes.

November was a busy month for Kappa Delta Pi with the tapping and initiating of twenty members who pledged themselves to uphold the aims of the society.

"The Roles of a Teacher," the theme for the year, was carried out with a program each month. In January Mrs. Rio T. McConnell presented a most interesting program on "The Role of the Teacher in High School Extra - Curricular Actiivties." Other programs included a panel discussion on "The Role of the Supervising Teacher and Student Teacher" and a speaker on "The Role of the Teacher in the Community and the Church."

Alpha Chi Chapter was represented by several members and its advisor at the regional conference of Kappa Delta Pi held at Lynchburg College.

Kappa Delta Pi Day was observed on February 27 with Mrs. Bernice Berlitz Vollmer as assembly speaker. Her topic was "The Power of Words."

The organization strived to carry out its aims of encouraging high professional, intellectual, and personal standards and of recognizing outstanding contributions to education. The year officially closed with the installation of new officers and the traditional banquet in May.

Pi Omega Pi, a national honorary business education fraternity, seeks to promote scholarship and high ethical standards, to aid in civic betterment in colleges, and to teach the ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

The first activity of the year was to administer business placement tests to the new students. Madison's chapter was represented at the national convention of Pi Omega Pi in Chicago. Other activities included presenting an award to the sophomore business major with the highest average and sponsoring typing and shorthand contests for high school students.

The highlight of the year came in March when the Club sponsored an assembly program and held a banquet at Shenandale, at which new members were initiated and officers for the coming year were elected.

Sigma Phi Lambda

Sigma Phi Lambda is the local honor society on the campus offering membership to those students maintaining a three-point average. Its purpose is threefold: the promotion of scholarship, leadership, and fellowship among Madison students.

In January Sigma Phi Lambda was brought to the attention of the entire campus through the enjoyable tea given for the freshmen and through the outstanding assembly presented on Sigma Phi Lambda Day. The speaker for this program was Dr. S. E. Gerard Priestley, British historian, world traveler, and specialist in international relations.

Meetings throughout the year were enjoyed by Sigma Phi Lambda members because of the wide variety in the types of programs.

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais attempts to create an understanding and an enjoyment of the French language, customs, and people for its members. It also tries to bring some knowledge of life in France to the other students on campus.

The goal of learning through enjoyment was reached by playing French games, learning French songs, and seeing movies of France. Among the Club members were two girls who had lived and visited in France and who were able to tell of their fascinating experiences there.

This year the high point of achievement was the presentation of a Christmas play in French for Friday Chapel.

El Club Espanol

El Club Espanol through fellowship and activity enables the Spanish students to learn more about the Spanish-speaking countries of the world, their peoples, and their customs.

Throughout the year the Club undertook many activities and service projects. Among the most gratifying was the preparing of a Christmas box for a needy family. An enjoyable week-end was spent at the college camp, and a trip was taken to Washington, D. C., to visit the Spanish Embassy and the Pan-American Union. A movie was presented to the student body portraying the customs of the Spanish peoples.

The year's activities were ended with an annual picnic at the home of the sponsor.

Ex Libris Club

The Ex Libris Club began another year of fellowship for prospective librarians, library assistants, and persons interested in library science with a social hour in the fall to acquaint interested freshman students with the functions and purposes of the Club.

Trips to nearby libraries and a variety of other programs helped in giving a better understanding of libraries and library science. The highlight of the year was the Christmas party at which time gifts were wrapped and baskets were prepared for a needy family.

Alpha Rho Delta

Alpha Rho Delta aims to create among its members a better understanding and a greater appreciation of the fine arts and the cultures of ancient civilization. It brings to life the sports, festivities, and grandeur of the life of the people of those days.

The numerous programs presented during the year were found to be both educational and interesting. The Club heard speakers acquainted with ancient cultures, saw slides and movies on the classical period, and visited museums exhibiting articles of interest.

Association For Childhood Education

The Association for Childhood Education has as its purpose to promote the interest of students enrolled in the elementary and dual curricula in the education of young children through exchange of ideas and experiences, and to better equip its members to uphold the standards of professional training.

During National Education Week the A.C.E. was host to the Wednesday assembly speaker. The supervisors from Keister Elementary School were frequent visitors at the monthly meetings and contributed a great deal to the discussions. Included in the year's activities were the annual banquet and the picnic at City Park.

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America is nationally organized for the promotion of understanding of business procedures and subsequently to adapt the business student to his individual selected vocation. A newspaper is published monthly to inform each chapter of the activities and ideas constituted in the various other chapters.

Freshmen were welcomed and informed at a party highlighting the September meeting and beginning the Madison College Chapter's calendar. At each of the other meetings the officers in charge led informative programs presented by the members themselves or by special guests. Activities this year included, in addition, movies, and speakers.

The conclusion of the year's calendar was an annual banquet and installation of officers for the coming year.

Mathematics Club

The Mathematics Club, which is composed of mathematics majors and minors, has as its purpose to maintain and foster an interest in mathematics on campus.

The most outstanding activity of the year was a successful homecoming for alumnae members. Dr. Robert C. Yates, Head of the Mathematics Department at William and Mary, was the speaker and had as his subject "Roulettes." Many of the old members returned for the evening.

Other activities of the Club included the Christmas party at which the new members were initiated and the annual visit to the sponsor's home in the spring.

The Glee Club

This year the Glee Club, with its sixty voices, was under a new director for the first time since its permanent founding in 1916. Dr. Lester Bucker, formerly Supervisor of Music of the Virginia State Department of Education, came to the campus and Glee Club this fall.

The Glee Club's activities during the school year included participation in the fall convocation and several appearances in the Monday and Wednesday assemblies. The annual Christmas program was given as a joint concert with the Randolph-Macon Men's Glee Club. The Club took such weekend trips as a preaching mission and television appearance in Norfolk, with a joint engagement with the University of Richmond Men's Glee Club, and joint concerts with the Men's Chorus of Hampden-Sydney.

The larger and much anticipated spring tour was taken within the state, visiting various high schools, civic organizations, and churches to further the knowledge and interest in Madison College. The year ended with the annual and classic May Day event in which the Glee Club furnished the choral background and with the participation in the baccalaureate and graduation exercises.

The Concert Band

The goal of the Concert Band is to promote high standards of musicianship and interest in ensemble playing, as well as to provide an opportunity for such playing experience.

During the year the Band presented programs both on the campus for the enjoyment of the student body and on various occasions in the community. Its members also participated in the gala May Day program.

Madison College

The Madison College Concert Orchestra has as its primary purpose the promotion of high standards of playing. The highlight of the year for its members was the annual spring tour, a week during which the orchestra gave of its talents to various schools and communities throughout the state. Aside from the tour, second semester also found the group presenting concerts in several nearby localities. These concerts included a variety of compositions, ranging from symphonies to show tunes and classics. Novelty numbers were included for the younger members of the audience. The orchestra also served the college at special assembly programs throughout the year.

Concert Orchestra

The orchestra featured vocal selections which impressed audiences with renditions of familiar favorites. The beautiful lighting and staging effects that were so much a part of the orchestra left a memorable impression on its audiences from the opening to the closing of the programs.

At the year's end each member felt a satisfaction that resulted from his contributions to the varied audiences. He had given pleasure to many, some of whom had never before heard such a group. It is this pleasure that is the musician's reward; that which he gives is returned many fold.

Diapason Club

The Diapason Club, which is affiliated with the American Guild of Organists, has as its aim the fostering of musical interest, abilities, and appreciation on the campus, especially in regard to organ music.

Composed of organ students, the Club began the year by sponsoring William Watkins, a prominent young organist, in an assembly program. The Club members participated in student recitals, assisted with church music, sponsored the appearance of musical artists, and took a trip to Washington, D. C., for the purpose of seeing and playing outstanding organs.

Madison College Chorus

The Madison College Chorus, a member of the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs, provides an outlet through group work for those students who have a special interest in choral music. To be of service, mainly on campus, is the primary aim of the organization.

Known as the official "Y.W.C.A. Choir," the Chorus regularly sang in Friday Chapel during the year. An entire musical program was presented by the Chorus for Chapel on one occasion. In addition, the group sang for various services in several of the local churches.

Madrigal Singers

The Madrigal Singers, formerly the Choral Ensemble, is composed of those persons interested in extra-curricular music.

The group had a busy year singing for civic clubs and organizations and for churches in Harrisonburg and neighboring communities, as well as participating in college activities. Some of the highlights of the year were the Christmas assembly program in collaboration with the "Y" pageant and a program of Christmas music, of which the group was in complete charge, given at St. Stephen's Church.

Several members were a part of the Virginia College Choral Clinic held in Richmond in the fall, and members also took part in the spring activities of the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs. The group made a week-end tour to Southeastern Virginia in the spring.

Lost Chords

Madison's own all-student dance band, the Lost Chords, was available to provide music for informal dances throughout the school year. Besides playing when their services were solicited, the group met for much-enjoyed "jam sessions." These sessions provided an opportunity for many of the students who enjoy playing jazz and dance music to get together and give their talents an airing, to get ideas from each other, and to gain the experience of playing in an informal group.

Stratford

Stratford Players started their year by sponsoring an assembly program given by two actors from New York who presented a series of scenes entitled "Mr. and Mrs."

The highlight of the Club's activity was the social hour given for the Canadian Players from Stratford, Ontario, following their performance of "Hamlet." The members of the Club and their guests were able to talk with the Players and become acquainted with each one personally.

Players

An afternoon not to be forgotten was the one spent at the apartment of the Club's sponsor. While enjoying delicious refreshments the members made plans for future activities.

Two public productions were given during the year. Fall brought the presentation of "Outward Bound," a British fantasy by Sutton Vane. The spring production was a bill of three one-act plays by American, British, and Russian playwrights.

The Bluestone Cotillion Club

The Bluestone Cotillion Club, which celebrated its twenty-seventh year of organization on campus, welcomed thirty new members during fall goating.

The most outstanding event during the year was the Cotillion and German dance weekend held February 22 and 23. The dance given Friday night featured the Nite Rockers. Saturday night everyone danced from "Dusk to Dawn" with music furnished by Tony Pastor and his orchestra.

Other memorable activities of the Club included the cabaret dance sponsored in March, spring goating, and the annual picnic held the latter part of spring.

The German Club

The German Club began the year by welcoming new members and presenting its annual cabaret dance in the fall.

Second semester was highlighted by goating and the German-Cotillion dance weekend, which included a Friday night cabaret dance, an informal concert Saturday afternoon, and the formal dance Saturday night. "Dusk to Dawn" was the theme for the black and silver decorations centering around Tony Pastor's orchestra. The officers of both dance clubs participated in the figure.

Graduating Germans said "good-byes" at the spring picnic, at which time the officers received lovely gifts from the Club.

To Ali Baba the word "sesame" meant "the opening of a door to greater riches." To the members of the Sesame Club it means "the opening of a door to a richer and fuller college life for the day students." The Club strives to promote the welfare of its members and to draw them into a closer relationship with resident students and their activities.

Activities of the Club included initiation of new members at Riverwood, a Christmas party, the sponsoring of an assembly program, and a spring picnic.

This year, in addition to these activities, the Club launched "Operation Improvements" for the Women Day Students' Room and took an active part in May Day.

Curie Science Club

The main purpose of the Curie Science Club is to foster science on campus and to help students further their special scientific interests.

Highlights of the year included the trip to the Merck chemical plant and participation in the Virginia Academy of Science.

Programs for the Club were given by members who had done research in particular fields and who wished to share their work with others. Members of the faculty also spoke to the Club on special topics.

As a finale for the year's activities the Club visited Riverwood, the college camp.

The Alumnae Association

Congratulations to the Class of '57. You have completed four years of special training at Madison College. Now you stand on the threshold of the life and work for which you have been preparing since the day of your birth. The best wishes of your Alma Mater are with you always wherever you may go.

The Alumni Association of Madison College was organized by the first graduating class—the Class of 1911, and has been functioning continuously ever since. Its primary purpose is to keep the Alumni in touch with each other and with their Alma Mater, to stimulate and perpetuate friendships, and to inspire continuing loyalty for the fine standards of life and service for which our college stands.

The Madison College Alumni Association invites you to become an active member of our organization, a vital part of the ever growing Madison family. By active, we mean one who keeps our Alumni Office informed as to one's whereabouts and activities so that the office may in turn keep up college and class contacts. Each member is asked to contribute annually to our Alumni Loyalty Fund and to pay dues of $1.00 per year. The Alumni Office publishes an ALUMNI NEWS BULLETIN twice a year, which is mailed out to all Alumni whose addresses are kept up to date in our files. We keep class lists, an area file, and married and single files which are available for all who wish to use them. Their accuracy, of course, depends upon the cooperation of the Alumni.

Your senior class president will serve as a class agent whose responsibility and opportunity it will be to keep you in touch with each other and with your Alma Mater. You will help her and help us tremendously if you will notify your Alumni Office when any change of address or name occurs.

You are also cordially invited to join one of our Madison College Local Chapters, located in Baltimore, Md., Charleston, W. Va., Northern Virginia Area, Winchester, Lexington, Culpeper, The Peninsula, Norfolk, Portsmouth, Richmond, Roanoke, Danville, Surry-Sussex, and Harrisonburg. Join the group nearest you and enjoy the fun and fellowship of others who know and love Madison also.

As you go out to take your place in the world's work, you take with you something of Madison College, just as you have left something of yourself here. It is our earnest hope that through you the influence and contribution of our Alma Mater may continue to grow, and to instill principles of truth, righteousness and brotherhood in the lives of the future citizens of our nation.

The Grandaughters' Club

In 1939 the Granddaughters' Club was organized to cherish the traditions and memories of Madison as passed from Mother to daughter.

Prior to the Christmas vacation, the members diligently prepared gifts for patients at the Alms House and Rockingham Memorial Hospital.

Other outstanding dates on the agenda included Founder's Day and Homecoming.

Junior Marshalls

The Junior Marshalls were appointed by the Junior Class officers. They were in charge of directing formal processions on such occasions as convocations and Founders' Day in an orderly and systematic manner.

Bottom, seated: J. Painter, R. Rowland. Standing: J. Hogan, J. Mays.

This year the Recreation Council did much to improve facilities on the campus for enjoyment of the students.

Television sets were obtained for the freshman dating center in Alumnae Hall and for the recreation room in Logan Hall, which is for the use of upperclassmen.

New four-speed record players replaced the old ones in many of the buildings on campus. For added pleasure in the recreation room of Ashby a new aluminum table-tennis table was installed. Johnston Hall received a useful tuck-away table-tennis table. Music in the dining halls was made more audible through the installation of additional speakers. A variety of small items, such as records, phonograph needles, and recreation equipment, was also purchased.

The Council contributed funds for use in preparation of floats representing each class in the May Day parade.

Each year the Recreation Council strives to obtain those recreational facilities most needed and desired on the campus. Certainly its members have found enjoyment in the fact that they made these new additions possible.

Frances Sale Club

The Frances Sale Club composed of students majoring in home economics was named in honor of the first home economics teacher at Madison. The purposes of the Club are to further interest in home-making, to obtain a stronger spirit of friendship and cooperation among the girls in all fields of home economics, and to train them in club leadership.

During the year some of the most successful activities were the Penn State and V.P.I. workshops, a symposium of home economists, and the state convention of the Virginia Home Economics Association attended by representatives of the Club.

The Athletic Association

HILDA WINKLEMAN
President

The Athletic Association, composed of all students enrolled at Madison, has its purpose to encourage and stimulate the students' participation and interest in athletic games and sports, to promote good sportsmanship, and to cultivate a spirit of cooperation and fellowship.

The Athletic Association Cabinet consists of the officers of the Athletic Association elected by the student body; class representatives; student intramural coordinators; student extramural coordinators; intramural committee composed of sports leaders in basketball, hockey, water sports, softball, badminton, archery, table tennis, volleyball, tennis, dance, fencing, and golf; extramural committee composed of club presidents in fencing, modern dance, Porpoise, and Mercury clubs, and the managers of the extramural teams. The organization sponsors the annual chuck wagon party for the Freshmen during orientation week and the traditional May Day Program at Madison. The Athletic Association's other activities include the sponsorship of the intramural sports. Hockey and basketball are offered as extramural sports.

Saturday afternoons in the fall bring the excitement of hockey games.

Hockey

Hockey, the first sport played after the opening of the fall semester, is one of Madison's two extramural sports. The team plays five or six matches with other colleges within the state during each season.

The team members are eligible for membership in the Blue Ridge Tournament each year. Tresa Quarles was selected for the Blue Ridge honorary first team this year.

First row: M. L. Royall, B. Roberts, P. Schultz. J. Flora, B. Harrelson. Second row: H. Winkleman, F. Schottroffe, A. Webb, T. Quarles, M. Ashton, S. Stewart.

First row: S. Welch, P. Guy, J. Poe, J. Harrison, L. Graves. Second row: P. Davies, K. Merrill, E. Aston, J. DiMisa, N. Blunt, D. Talbert.

Mercury Club

The Mercury Club is a professional organization for physical education majors and minors. Opportunities for professional education as well as social and recreational programs are presented throughout the year to foster better professional attitudes, advance good fellowship, and to provide leadership experience.

First row: P. Whittaker, V. Owens, J. Flora, F. Evans, M. Foster, B. Armistead, M. Royall, M. Mauck, J. DiMisa. Second row: K. Merrell, B. Cave, H. Bresko, H. Woolfolk, R. Collie, W. Coles, E. Humphreys, E. Ashton, B. Stone, A. Shotwell, J. Moreland.

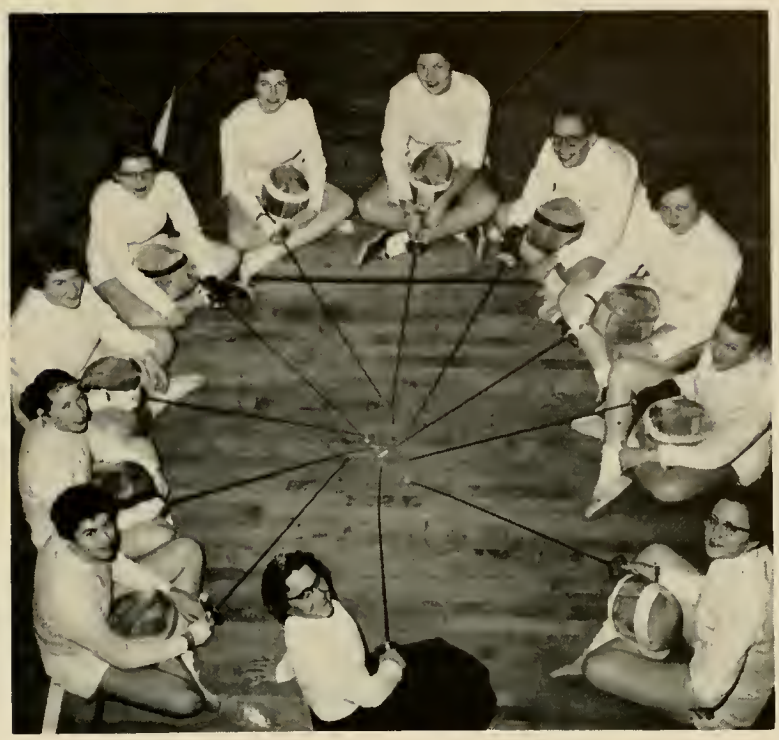
Basketball

A Madison Duchess looks for an opening to pass during a Saturday afternoon basketball game.

Offered as a varsity sport, basketball is provided for those Madisonites with advanced skills in playing the game. Madison competes with other college teams throughout the state of Virginia to feature several outstanding performances throughout the season.

Basketball is a popular intramural sport on the Madison campus. Early in the fall a team is organized by each dormitory and sorority house. These teams are divided into two leagues — the Purple and the Gold. A tournament is held to determine a first and second place winner for each League. Play-offs are held to determine the first and second place teams for the campus. This year Junior team placed first with Jackson trailing close behind. Logan and Ashby won third and fourth place. As a grand finale, the winning intramural team plays the varsity team — and incidentally the varsity team won this year.

Suspense is mounting! Will this Duchess succeed in her attempt?



Dr. Sinclair, B. Stone, J. Kuhn, S. Welch, H. Hilton, A. Turner, D. Glass, Miss Morrison, D. Waldrop, V. Hall, E. Ashton.

Fencing Club

The Fencing Club offers to Madison students an opportunity to participate in the sport of Fencing which demands coordination, speed, skill, and courtesy.

Although fencing is relatively new on this campus, it may be recognized that Madison is one of the few colleges where Fencing is taught and organized.

The action of the foil is demonstrated to members of the fencing team by Dr. Sinclair.

A picturesque setting is presented with arch foils by members of the Fencing Club.

Porpoise Club

The Porpoise Club, designed to provide an opportunity for the more interested and skilled swimmers, strives to further a general interest in swimming. The Club helps others to learn to swim and also to emphasize the importance of safety measures which are imperative to each individual.

B. Brown, M. Potzler, J. Dyer, B. Roberts.

M. Foster, S. Slade, J. Buchannan, B. Edwards.

Orchesis, the modern dance club, is organized for all those who wish to do extra work in dance. Members are selected on the basis of their grace, coordination, and skill. Tryouts are held each year to determine new membership.

A highlight of the year was our annual trip to the Fine Arts Forum at the Woman's College, University of North Carolina. There we saw the thesis dance of our own Miss Gutchow performed.

March 22 and 23 we presented our recital to the public. The glee club and orchestra combined with the dancers to make possible our presentation of "Maresco" and "Jubilent Song" along with seven unique and original creations by club members.

Orchesis

B. Roberts, J. Buchannan, S. Brankley, R. Frank, M. Foster, S. Slade, B. Edwards, B. Brown, M. Potzler, J. Dyer.

Intramural

S. Matthews directs a race for the participants in swimming and water sports.

D. Glass instructs a lunge in this fencing match.

S. Andrews, M. Caldwell, S. Back and P. Dougherty choose equipment for a shooting session in archery.

Sports

H. Hylton watches with a critical eye as N. Eubanks and N. Phillips participate in a game of shuffleboard.

N. Atkinson, P. Simmons, and S. Simpson observe F. Campbell's stroke as she starts to tee off from the green.

J. Zehring, intramural social dancing leader, seems pleased with her conquest.

the Administration

A message from the President

Dear 1957 Graduates:

It has been a pleasant and satisfying experience to to have been associated with you during your years as students at Madison. You have rendered outstanding leadership to the College, and I wish to commend you for your loyalty and cooperation.

As alumni, you will continue as important members of our Madison College family. It is my hope that you will recall your years here with pleasure and satisfaction and that you will find that your experiences at Madison have been valuable in preparing you for your life work. In future years, I hope that you will demonstrate your interest in and sentimental attachment for your Alma Mater and that Madison may look forward to your continued loyalty and support. My heartiest congratulations and best wishes for your future happiness and success are extended to each member of the Class of 1957.

Sincerely,
G. TYLER MILLER
President of Madison College

DR. PERCY H. WARREN
Dean of Madison College

A message from the Dean

Dear Students:

It is generally agreed that genuine happiness comes only from the complete and abundant life and that success is measured in terms of service to God and mankind. We, your teachers, recognize that the profession in which we are engaged has inherent qualities and opportunities for the attainment of happiness and success which are not present to the same degree in many fields of work.

In permitting us to work with young persons day after day, God has bestowed upon us a wonderful privilege and a great blessing. You have blessed us by your attendance at Madison College — by giving us an opportunity to help you achieve your developmental tasks, grow in knowledge, grow in the abilities to think critically and creatively. It makes us happy to see you achieve the aforementioned aspects of maturity, as well as to observe you enlarge your circle of friends, to think of your seriousness in finding a life's companion and to realize that you are coming to know God better and are making more real the teachings of the church which heretofore have been accepted on authority.

Happiness and success are in the midst of teachers. God has make it relatively easy for us to know happiness and success. We thank God for our profession and we thank you for associating yourself with us.

Sincerely yours,

PERCY H. WARREN

The Alma Mater

O Alma Mater to thy name we'll ever faithful be,

Lift learnings torch to brighter flame, shed
honor's light on thee.

Where mountain blue meets sunset glow, our college stands serene,

With passing years our friendships grow in memory ever green

O, Madison, may wisdom clear guide us and prosper thee.

We give thee, Alma Mater dear,

Our love and loyalty, Our love and loyalty.

THE SENIOR CLASS

We contributed nothing that deserves great publicity, but some people may remember our class. We were capped official Seniors in October — we threw our talents into Class Day in November, and marched proudly through the months from December to May. The last college days of May bubbled with spring, May Day, back-campus sun-tanning and Moving-Up Day. Graduation weekend was jammed with activities we shall long remember. The biggest day of all was when we "Pomp and Circumstanced" down the aisle for the last time — when we found the "goodbyes" to be more difficult than we had expected. We leave nothing materially to be remembered by — only a little wish — that some of our college friends will remember our names and greet us when we return alumnae.

Judy Moss and Beulah Dillow enjoy bedtime stories told by Pat Smith and Judy Bair in the Junior Class Night Production.

"PROUD OF OUR CLASS SO LOYAL AND BOLD."

Renewed enthusiasm and class spirit returned to campus with the lively Juniors this fall. Regreeting old friends, making new ones, shouting, hugging, greeting little sisters, all contributed toward starting the new year off with a bang! Of course, not easily forgotten, though not remembered with much pleasure, was the tedious job of registration, followed by tiring hours in the book line.

The class enjoyed the opportunity of helping their sister class, the freshmen, become orientated to campus activities. The big sister - little sister party gave the freshmen a chance to become acquainted with the "old timers" here at Madison.

Thanksgiving! After a long awaited vacation, filled with parties and "studies?", the Juniors returned to campus prepared to put the finishing touches on the big production, class night. The Christmas theme enlivened the campus with holiday spirit. The speaker, Dr. Albert G. Edwards, by inspiring all to appreciate the full meaning of Christmas, made the vacation richer and fuller for each and every one of the class members.

Returning to campus, this time with less enthusiasm, units and term papers were removed untouched from suitcases and the night lights were kept burning in an attempt to meet deadlines. Then, of course, exams — need more be said! Not to be forgotten were the campus dances, weekends away, sunbathing, May Day and other numerous activities, looked forward to and enjoyed by all.

Exams — June — SENIORS AT LAST! YEA!

The Sophomores Cap their sister class, the Seniors, in the official capping ceremony held in October.

With the feeling of harvest in the air, the Sophomore Class reaped the rewards of their Freshman year and returned to Madison Campus feeling more a part of the college than ever before. They stepped from the role of Little Sisters to that of Big Sisters, enjoying the experience of capping the Sister Class, the Seniors.

The long awaited vacations approached and passed more swiftly as extra time was filled with participation in new activities. Many of the class had the opportunity of working on the journalistic staffs, participating in the campus athletics, and enjoying the social clubs.

The entire class "joined the Navy" in this year's class night program, leaving behind the fears felt when the class had made its debut the preceding year.

The Class feels that with the spirit of "togetherness," they have accomplished much. They have really become a working unit, and the memories created in this year will certainly prove to be cherished ones.

The capping of Freshmen by upperclassmen was a significant part of the Old Student-New Student Day Program.

WE'RE THE GREATEST CLASS; WE'RE THE BEST OF THEM ALL!

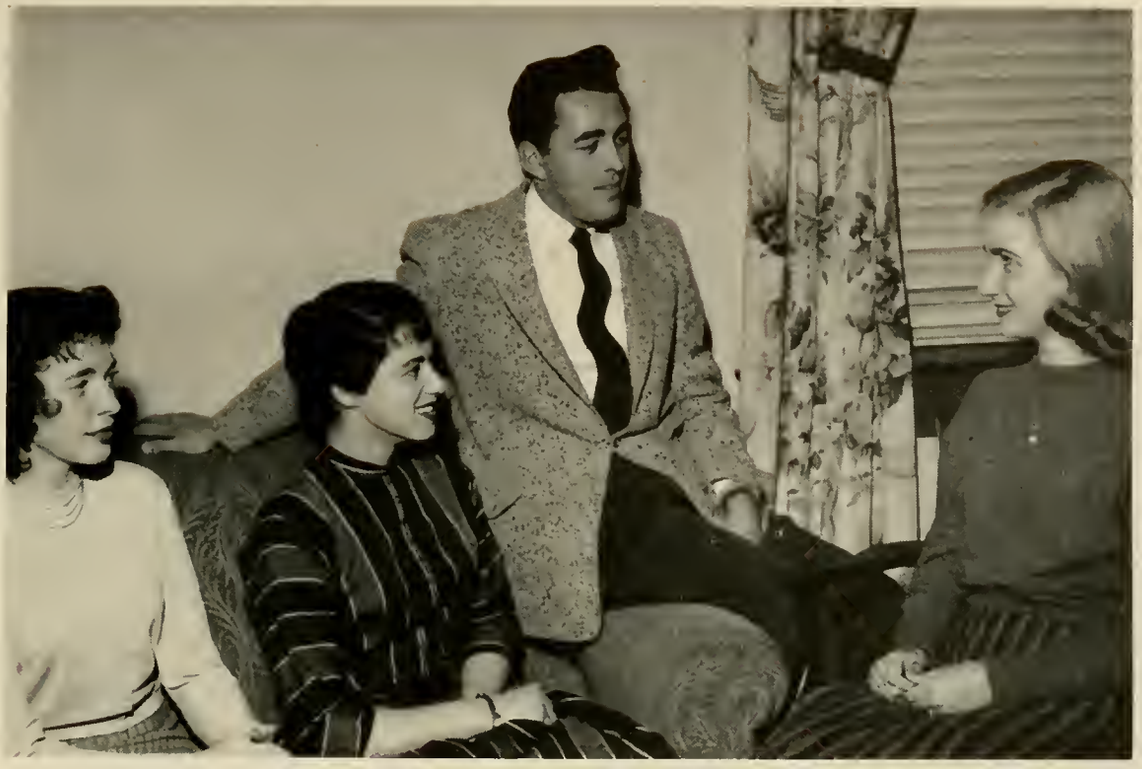
This is what the first year at Madison has done; it has made a class from the three hundred sixty-seven individuals who arrived on September 16, 1956. On this day each one realized that this big step they had decided to take meant that sacrifices would have to be made. Their familiar surroundings would have to be given up for an entirely new way of life.

The problems that arose from the adjustment into college life seemed too big to overcome, but through the guidance of the Dean of Freshman, senior counselors, and the college organizations they were made less important.

With the background the Class of '60 received in its first year at Madison, the limitation of its achievements are boundless.

With eyes to the future, hearts set on a definite goal, the class advances together challenging you to KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE FRESHMAN CLASS.

Class Sponsors, Dr. and Mrs. Bucher, note the date of the Freshman Class Day.



Officers: Susan Ritchie, Reporter; Faye Morgan, Secretary; Donald Stalnaker, Vice-President; Carolyn Nicholson, Treasurer.

On Main Street are found many of the businesses which Madison students patronize.

Looking South on Main Street can be seen Joseph Ney's, Alfred Ney's, and the First National Bank.

In Harrisonburg, Miles Music Company has one of the most modern music stores in the South.

What is Madison?

Founded	1908
Located	In the heart of the Shenandoah Valley at Harrisonburg, Virginia.
Named For	James Madison, Fourth President of the United States.
Enrollment	More than 1200 students attend Madison of whom 125 are men. Men have been admitted under certain conditions since World War II.
Degrees	Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science in Education; Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science — Liberal Arts; Master of Arts and Master of Science in Education.
Standing	Accredited by Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, National Council on the Accreditation of Teacher Education, Virginia State Board of Education. Member of Association of American Colleges, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, American Council on Education, National Commission on Accrediting, Association of Teacher Education Institutions, Corporate Member of American Association of University Women.
Alumni	Over 9,000 men and women now teaching in the public schools of Virginia. Madison has graduated more certified teachers than any other state college. Many Madison Alumni are engaged in scientific research, hold responsible posts in dietetics and institutional management (Madison originated this program in the state), school library posts, and are teachers in every level of education and in all subject matter fields. Also listed among Madison's alumni are persons in other professions like medicine, dentistry, art, music, writing and journalism. Some are social workers, many capable housewives and mothers.
Campus	Excellent living accommodations. Soon to be built — two new dormitories, a practice school and an infirmary. The campus is over 300 acres with 28 buildings in the college plant. Convenient location to town shopping area, to churches, to bus routes, are advantages. The campus also boasts athletic fields, two swimming pools, two gymnasiums, an outstanding library, science laboratories and greenhouse. The town offers radio and television facilities, and television viewing is available at many key spots on the campus. A college camp is located on the Shenandoah River.
Other Features	The college has facilities for wide screen movies, and students may also join two concert series for students and townspeople. Outstanding artists and lecturers come to the college each week for the special student assembly.

BETTER LIVING!

VEPCO

Yes, MODERN ELECTRIC LIVING is better living! Today, private enterprise supplies more power to more people in more ways than ever before!

That means more jobs, created by increased uses of electricity . . . more leisure, due to labor saving electrical equipment. So take a tip from Reddy: LIVE BETTER—ELECTRICALLY!

You, the Class of 1957, occupy a rather singular role in being graduated from a college in Virginia this particular year. In the first place, the number "seven" for some unknown reason has been significant in the recorded annals of mankind.

The Bible upon several occasions, enumerates reckonings and happenings in terms of "seven." The story of Pharaoh's dream of the "seven" years of plenty and the "seven" years of famine is but one classic example.

Then, on the other hand, it was in 1607 that the first permanent English settlement in America was made at Jamestown, Virginia. Three hundred fifty years and some ten or eleven generations later, you are graduating from one of the colleges in the same great State which those settlers founded. This should not only fill you with pride for your Alma Mater, but it should be a constant challenge to you to cherish and to foster the principles of our dedicated forefathers.

The next several years are also to be historic ones in the life of Madison College. The institution was founded on March 14, 1908 and the Class of 1958 will represent fifty years of growth and progress for Madison College. The first students arrived on the Campus on September 28, 1909 to begin the actual peopling of the College, and the Class of 1959 will also share in the spotlight of events. A similar claim could be made for the Class of 1960 — and for the others which are to follow. This continuous procession of students graduating and entering Madison is the actual life of the College. You can play a key role in helping maintain this life-line by exercising constant vigilance to insure for the coming generations the opportunities which you have been privileged to experience. You may also want to point out to those you serve, the many advantages of Madison.

So, in wishing for each of you success, happiness, and Godspeed, the occasion should be one of rejoicing for having been so closely linked to those of the past, and one of solemn rededication as you face the future.

WILLIAM J. DeLONG,
Director of Student
Personnel Services

There is no formal ending for the happenings recorded in the 1957 Schoolma'am. They shall be continued for as long as Madison College may exist. With this in mind, I pay tribute to the 1958 Editor-in-Chief, Beverly Pearce. To her I present the responsibility and the challenge of recording the history of Madison accurately and worthily during her period of service.
